LEVI

Luke 5:27-32 (NIV)

²⁷ After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax collector by the name of Levi sitting at his tax booth. “Follow me,” Jesus said to him, ²⁸ and Levi got up, left everything and followed him. ²⁹ Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them.

Luke 5:27-32 (NIV)

³⁰ But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law who belonged to their sect complained to his disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?” ³¹ Jesus answered them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. ³² I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

- the way you have been building your identity

If you chase success,
it will cost you your rest.

If you chase success,
it will cost you your rest.

If you chase validation,
it will cost you your identity.

Luke 5:29 (NIV)

²⁹ Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them.

John 6:35 (NIV)

³⁵ Then Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

Over these past 2+ years of knowing God, He has not failed me. He provided what I needed. When I felt insufficient, He showed me His love. When I was at my lowest moment, He showed me He was right beside me. In my pain, He filled me with joy.

He has given me so many blessings. I have never regretted knowing God, and this is why I have taken another step of faith to get baptised, to follow Jesus, because I know for a fact that I will never regret it.

There's always a tension between holding on to what you know and trusting that God's way
is actually better.

Will Jesus really be enough for me?

Proverbs 3:5-6 (NIV)

⁵ Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; ⁶ in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight.

In the past, I used to feel very anxious and angsty because of all my insecurities, guilt, and shame from my past. But now, I no longer feel ashamed because I am a child of God and I am loved unconditionally.
